Early-termination fee

If you intend to sell your home or want to cancel your home loan for any other reason, please give us 90 days' notice.

- The National Credit Act prescribes the early-termination fee (often called '90-day notice'), allowing the bank to charge a fee if a client cancels the home loan before the agreed loan term ends.
- We work out the early-termination fee on three months' interest (based on your outstanding balance, interest rate and remaining loan term).
- Should you cancel your home loan before the 90 days, we will charge the pro rata amount for the remaining days.
- Should you cancel the bond 90 or more days after you have given notice, we won't charge an early termination fee.
- The notice will be valid for one year. If you don't cancel your home loan within that year, you will have to give 90 days' notice again.
