Foreign flows

Nedbank CIB Market Commentary | CIBMarketComm@Nedbank.co.za | +27 11 294 1753

- Foreign flows saw a net inflow of just over R1 billion last week – volumes and liquidity remain thin in a shorter workweek. Inflows were solely driven by the equity market which saw R2.6 billion worth of inflows, while the bond market saw R1.5 billion worth of outflows.
- The YTD inflow is R52.4 billion, driven by both equities and bonds. The sharp increase in capital flows since the start of the year have been driven by improved confidence levels, support for EM assets and risk assets in general, and attractive real yields within EM and SA in particular. The current cumulative trend in capital flows have risen well above seasonal trends, since at least 2011 in the chart below.
- Concerns are currently driven by the sustainability of the rally, particularly given the uncertainty over a trade war between the US and China and whether this results in a sharp decline in interest for risk assets.

SA equities and bonds (bn)	Week to 06 Apr 2018	Month to 06 Apr 2018	Year to 06 Apr 2018
Foreign flows into SA equity market	R 2.560	R 2.560	R 28.828
Foreign flows into SA bond market	-R 1.512	-R 1.512	R 23.597
Total foreign flows	R 1.048	R 1.048	R 52.426
